BEING GORDON GREENIDGE

in association with Barbados and Friends Association (Reading) & Reading School

Thursday 12 to Saturday 14 October
7.30pm + 2.30pm Saturday matinee

BOX OFFICE 0118 960 6060  READINGARTS.COM
BEING GORDON GREENIDGE

In 1965, a 14 year old Gordon Greenidge from St Peter, Barbados landed in a stark cold town called Reading.

He went on to become one of the most successful cricketers in history and was an integral part of the all-conquering West Indies side from 1974-91.

‘Being Gordon Greenidge’ charts Gordon’s rise to international fame from humble beginnings in 60’s Reading, celebrating the huge impact his West Indian cricket team had on the Caribbean community.

A brand new theatre show from the makers of ‘Jackson’s Corner’, ‘Kaspar’ and ‘The Final Whistle’, featuring archive footage and exclusive interviews with elders from Reading’s Bajan community.

Written & Directed by Benedict Sandiford
Produced by South Street & University of Reading
Supported by Arts Council England

Venue: Reading School Cricket Pavilion, Erleigh Road
Tickets £15, £13 members (includes a drink)
Ages 10+: No latecomers.

BOX OFFICE 0118 960 6060
READINGARTS.COM